Are you a student, recent graduate, or young adult who has a disability?

Are you working through the process of transition to adulthood?

Would you like to develop leadership skills, self-confidence, and future direction?

Then Arizona Virtual Youth Leadership Forum is for you!

- Participate in an innovative, online, conference for youth who have a variety of disabilities as they prepare for transition into adulthood.
- Based on Person-Centered Practices, embark on a personal growth journey of self-discovery to assist in identifying and embracing your strengths and gifts, in preparation for your future.
- Develop essential life skills such as: self-determination, self-advocacy, independent living, personal leadership, community engagement, employment, goal-setting, and much more.
- Receive mentoring and ongoing connection through the peer-led Alumni Association, after graduation.

To be eligible for selection as a Delegate to Arizona Virtual Youth Leadership Forum, youth must:

- Have a disability that they acknowledge, and that others regard them having;
- Be in high school, or be a young adult under the age of 30, who is working through the process of transition to adulthood;
- Desire to increase personal leadership, self-reliance, and self-advocacy skills;
- Strive to interact effectively with peers and elder role models;
- Reside in Arizona
